The Comedy Master Series

Art Krug

After earning a degree from Whitworth, Art Krug landed a prestigious position bussing tables at a Mexican restaurant in Portland, Oregon. Then, in March of 1983, he took to the stage for his first live comedy performance. Within a year, Art was headlining venues around the Northwest and into Canada.

In 1988, Art moved to L.A. and quickly established himself as a regular with The Improvisation comedy franchise, touring around the country and working with such comedians as Drew Carey, Ron White, Jake Johansen, and Brian Regan. Since then, he has performed thousands of shows. In short, Art Krug is a tested comedy veteran ... who can wait tables.

Charlie Wiener

What happens when a baby boomer happily residing in a closet, deep in the recess of his mind, wakes up to find he has been married several times and is the father to two daughters of voting age? Where did the good times go? What's a mortgage? How did his old nemesis, Reality, find him? Charlie Wiener joins the hilarious struggle each night live on stage.

Charlie Wiener has headlined comedy clubs across the United States and Canada for more than forty years. In music and comedy, Charlie has proven himself to be the consummate entertainer and one of the most requested stand-up comedians working the road. Charlie Wiener, comedy with that old, old world edge. If wisdom comes with age does it not seem logical that cranky is right on its heel???
